Angels & Gentlemen

Elite Sugar Dadding Introduction Service

Angels & Gentlemen is an exclusive and discreet London based introduction agency aimed at matching beautiful young women with wealthy gentlemen for Sugar Daddy or mutually beneficial arrangements, without compromising their privacy, reputation and sometimes business or family interests.

A personalised and bespoke Sugar Dating service, our clients value discretion as well as their time. As such we only introduce members who fit one another's ideals, preferences and expectations.

To that end our goal is simple: to find that special person you want to explore a committed Sugar Dating relationship with.

Why Choose Angels & Gentlemen?

We understand the challenges faced by many busy professionals. Juggling work and life can leave little opportunity to focus on finding a mutually beneficial Sugar Daddy relationship.

Our service is designed to be both easy and effortless so you can continue with your everyday life whilst we work on your behalf. To that end we provide a totally reliable and discreet service for both men and women.

Our Difference

We are not a membership site, we are an exclusive and high-end Sugar Dating introduction service.

Unlike many online Sugar Daddy introduction agencies, we do not display profiles and photos for all to see. In fact, there is no way of knowing who is a member of Angels & Gentlemen other than by joining.

Therefore, you can be confident that we have already spent time searching for and getting to know all our members before any introductions are made.

We take away the uncertainty, doubt and privacy issues so you have the luxury of only meeting that someone special who is truly committed to wanting a Sugar Dating relationship.

I was quite sceptical at first, yet Angels & Gentlemen exceeded my expectations and provided a very professional and discrete introduction service. I have now met the most beautiful young lady.

GENTLEMEN

Angels & Gentlemen provides a very discreet and exclusive matchmaking service for wealthy gentlemen across London and Greater London wanting to meet beautiful young women for Sugar Daddy or mutually beneficial arrangements.

A personalised service, we only introduce you to ladies who we believe fit your ideals, preferences and expectations.

Our Process

Once membership has commenced, an initial confidential consultation will take place – in private – at a convenient and neutral location in London. Our personal consultancy service will then continue throughout the length of your membership.

This informal meeting will provide us with an opportunity to discover your preferences and requirements, as well as explain how you can enjoy and benefit the most from your new “Sugar Daddy” relationship.

Depending on your membership option, we will then begin to arrange introductions with beautiful young ladies who we think will suit you best.

You can be assured and confident that we will already have spent time searching for and getting to know our members – all of the young ladies are interviewed and screened before any introductions are made.

We take away the uncertainty, doubt and privacy issues so you then have the luxury of only meeting young ladies truly committed to wanting a Sugar Daddy relationship.

OUR MEMBERSHIP OPTIONS

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What's the difference between you and online Sugar Dating website?

Many online Sugar Daddy dating sites will include lots of attractive and responsive members online, however, these are often fake profiles created specifically to lure paying customers in.

Many have fallen foul to this practice who sign up, pay their subscription fees and then find they are suddenly far less popular than when they were a free member – or worse – never seem to get anyone to actually respond to their contact requests.

At Angels & Gentlemen we remove the uncertainty, as well as the time spent 'getting to know' someone who may or may not be so honest and sincere. We meet all our members to ensure they are committed to the process, understand their obligations and are genuinely seeking a Sugar Daddy or Sugar Baby.

Our goal is to find you that special person you want to explore a committed Sugar Dating relationship with. The key word here is "relationship" and matching as close as possible to your requirements, so you are more likely to have found that person by the end of your membership period.

Simply put we focus on Sugar Daddy "relationships", not providing our clients with random dates over a few months plucked from a database.

What kind of people use your service?

Our members are both young, attractive and ambitious women and older, affluent, professional men – serious and committed to a sugar dating relationship. As mentioned we personally meet every client before they become a member, so you can expect to meet genuine, kind and caring people.

Do you accept everyone as a client of Angels & Gentlemen?

The simple answer is no. Unlike every online Sugar Dating website that accepts any member regardless, we only work with people who we feel we can provide the best opportunities to.

At Angels & Gentlemen we will never accept a client just to gain a fee. Similarly, we will never accept clients with very unrealistic goals, or sugar partner preferences that read like a shopping list.

We provide a very personal, warm and informal service and expect the same from our members.

Can I speak to someone before deciding to join?

Yes, potential members are always welcome to have a free and no obligation telephone call to ask questions, clarify any details, as well as see if they are a good fit for this service. Please be assured there will never be any high pressured sales pitch.

After this complimentary call, potential female members can then decide if they would like to make an application to join, or for our potential male members, progress to a one-to-one meeting having first decided which membership option they would like to subscribe to.

If, however you would prefer to have an initial face-to-face meeting to discuss further, we can of course arrange a meeting at a convenient location, or if work commitments etc limit your availability, organise a face-to-face Skype call if required. The fee for either option is £60 per hour.

How do your fees compare to other Introduction services?

As there is, currently, no other introduction agency in the UK that provides a bespoke Sugar Dating introduction service (almost all Sugar Dating services are subscription based websites) it is difficult to compare our fees to other agencies.

However, high-end introduction agencies such as Seventy Thirty and Berkeley International fees often start from £10,000 and can be as high as £50,000. Angels & Gentlemen is not only comparatively cheaper but we also provide a custom designed service tailored to an individual's requirements.

How soon will I meet someone?

For our gentlemen clientele you can expect to be introduced to suitable ladies within 2-3 weeks of joining Angels & Gentlemen.

We appreciate that both parties are looking to meet high-quality individuals, and as such we are constantly undertaking a proactive promotional campaign, both online and offline, to ensure the right portfolio of members are readily available to meet high-calibre suitors through Angels & Gentlemen.

Do you guarantee to find me a Sugar Daddy or a Sugar Baby?

No and nor should any introduction service offer these guarantees. What Angels & Gentlemen can guarantee is to create the opportunity for you to find a Sugar Daddy or a Sugar Baby.

A relationship is of course very much based on personal chemistry between two people, which we cannot control nor guarantee. However, you can expect a totally bespoke match making service, and based on your preferences and expectations, we will provide meaningful introductions not just find people to fill a membership number quota.

Why is it only free for women to join?

The dynamics of a Sugar Daddy relationship are that of a young woman seeking to date an affluent older man for companionship and romance.

Many young women decide to venture into these mutually beneficial relationships for a variety of reasons – some do it because they're looking for help towards their education fees or living expenses etc.

Given that these 'ingredients' essentially define a typical Sugar Daddy relationship, it is natural to assume that our female members will not be financially secure enough to afford to pay our fees, which the older and high net-worth male clients can readily afford.

We do however charge all our female clients a small administrative fee. This not only helps to cover the cost of meeting with prospective Sugar Babies, more importantly (for our male clients), it has been proven to 'weed out' those young ladies who are not genuinely committed to wanting a Sugar Daddy relationship.

How are Prestige and Premium membership fees paid?

For both Prestige and Premium membership, a one-off payment is due once the services of Angels & Gentlemen have been engaged.

Can I receive a refund if I change my mind?

For female clients we are unable to refund any administrative fees. For male clients, if you change your mind within 14 DAYS of engaging Angels & Gentlemen you will be entitled to a full refund, less any costs already incurred, in addition to an administrative fee to cancel. After the 14-day period, you will not be due a refund, however you can put your membership on hold for up to 30 days ☐ please see "Can I pause my membership?" below.

Can I pause my membership?

We appreciate that you might quickly be introduced to your ideal Sugar Daddy or Sugar Baby and therefore wish to pause your membership to see how the relationship develops. As such we provide options for both our female and male clients:

•Ladies:

It is very important that you inform us if you wish to pause your membership, as we will then not make any further introductions unless notified accordingly.

You can put your membership on hold at any point and indefinitely. However, we do ask that you confirm this in writing and give 7 days' notice.

•Gentlemen:

For both Prestige and Premium options, you can put your membership on hold for up to 30 days during your membership period. We ask that this is confirmed in writing and with 7 days' notice given.

Please note: for both Prestige and Premium you can only pause your membership once during the 3 or 6 months respectively.

Do you really provide a truly confidential service?

Yes, we provide a totally confidential and discrete service.

Unlike some Sugar Daddy websites, you may have seen online, we do not display profiles and photos for all to see. We appreciate everyone one of our members' value and require the upmost discretion.

There is no access to online profiles and photos. This ensures your confidentiality. In fact, there is no way of knowing who is a member of Angels & Gentlemen other than by joining.

You will also notice that due to the level of privacy required by all parties, we do not provide a direct enquiry telephone service. This is to stop 'third parties' tracing any phone calls.

We will communicate with all our members by email, mobile and/or text – or by a method which is most convenient to them. In addition, we do not operate a telephone answering service, as all initial enquiries are taken via our secure contact form.

Please also be assured we treat any information you share with us in the strictest confidence and promise never, under any circumstances, to share your details with any third parties outside of Angels & Gentlemen. Please see our Privacy Policy for further details.

Fees can be settled through various payment methods. Again this gives you the confidence that 'Angels & Gentlemen' will not appear on any bank statements, ensuring payments remain as relatively anonymous as possible. Whilst we may not appear very 'commercial', we know that this goes in hand with a level of privacy you are likely to demand.
